Criteria

Minneapolis College does not endorse any specific lender; however, we do encourage students and parents to choose an experienced lender that is committed to providing efficient and ongoing service. The FASTChoice lender list is used as a guide to help students and parents compare/contrast different lenders so that they can choose the repayment options that will provide them with the best benefits.

The following is a list of criteria Minneapolis College uses when determining if a lender should be added to the FASTChoice lender list.

Does the lender:

- Provide comparable benefits to the students (fees, repayment options, interest rate reduction for on-time payments, etc)?
- Provide support and services for the students and the college?
- Sell the loans before the end of the loan period?
- Have experience in the industry and have they established themselves as a reliable entity?

Minneapolis College uses Great Lakes Higher Education Corporation as our guarantee agency because they are a recognized leader in the student loan industry and one of the largest national guarantors and servicers of student loans. Great Lakes provides industry-leading services throughout the complete life of a loan. These services, which include loan guarantee, origination, disbursement, and servicing, are each offered in a seamless manner to minimize confusion and cost to the student.

Code of Conduct

Minneapolis College does not receive financial incentives from any lender or guarantee agency as enticement to be placed on the lender list. The decision is based on the performance of the lender and the incentives given to the students.
